K. C. Eldridge, Singer Office. j15

ICE.—Doc Benton is now offering a very superior quality of ice for sale, delivered to any part of the city. It is the best ice harvested for years in this section. r's

Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality.
Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet. s18tf

Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature. s18tf

HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say:
"Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND "COUGH!" —What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it.
W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.
Twenty five cents a bottle.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you want for Constipation, Loos in Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle.

M. C. Gardner proposes to keep the fat of the land in his market and is here to stay. Give him a call. s18tf

ALL SORTS.

Judge Boardman of Reno is in the city.
Col. Sutherland of Candelaria is at the Arlington.

Fresh Fish every Tuesday and Friday at Looftbourrows. of

A man named Briggs who was Secretary of the Masada Lodge of Salt Lake committed suicide in Wells on Thursday last by blowing out his brains.

D. B. Williams, who has been nominated for State Senator by the Republicans of Elko County, is a brother of Senator Evan Williams of this county.

The funeral of Geo. Wilcox's infant son took place yesterday atternoon. The child's coffin was covered with flowers and many friends of the bereaved family were in attendance.

The Vote Contest.

The public is beginning to warm up on the vote contest between State candidates. So far, Will U. Mackey is ahead. He has several agents scouring the town for votes and it is now hard to find an APPEAL that has not a vote cut out of it.

The Jones men are running Mackey very close.

Several friends of Jones, who is running for Surveyor General, are active in his behalf, and Winters' friends are also rustling.

The APPEAL learns that a number of people are saving up big batches of votes to dump in on the last day and help their man tail the prize.

The vote contest will close with the present month, and after that no votes will be received.

On Monday an order for 100 extra copies of the APPEAL was received from Virginia City, but up to date the votes clipped from the extra numbers have not matterialized in this office.

Anyone has a right to vote who clips the ballot from a copy of the APPEAL.

Yesterday, Mackey, Winters and Jones all got their scores considerably augmented, and all have passed the 100 mark.

War to the Knife.

The Storey Democrats are having one of those times which has many of the monkey and parrot characteristics. Mr. Keating led the bouncers who ejected Mr. Deal from the Convention on the ground that he did not want anyone there who worked for the V. & T. corporation. This can hardly be the reason as Mr. Keating was advocating that no legislative ticket be put up by the Democrats, the very thing that the Enterprise was advocating. One must look elsewhere for the cause of the trouble and the APPEAL in the absence of a better explanation is disposed to hold to its original theory, that the frequent indulgence in clean shirts practiced by Mr. Deal, made his name a stench in the nostrils of Democracy.

Democratic Convention.

The Ormsby Democratic County Convention will convene in the District Court room in this city promptly at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day (Saturday). Delegates will govern themselves accordingly.

T. W. HEALY,
Chairman County Central Committee.
Carson, October 17, 1890.

Political Dance.

James Wiggins has kindly allowed the use of his commodious hanging hall in Empire for the purpose of holding a candidates dance on the night of the 31st, where ladies can well attend and enjoy the social disposition of office seekers just previous to election. The dance will not be of the old hoe-down order but a social gathering, regardless of politics that no one can afford to miss or deprive his best girl enjoying. Good music has been engaged as well the sumptuous feast which is to be prepared. "Come all ye candidates and be merry for on the 4th ye die." s153t

To Rent—Furnished rooms and furnished house of six rooms.
Apply at this office. s25w1

Reflection on Nude Art.

Miss Johnson, the woman who has had the audacity to appear as an artist's model posed on a pedestal to skin tights, that fit like the paper on the wall, is reported to be making arrangements to come west.

If she ever has the gall to show herself in this city the APPEAL proposes to head a crowd of leading citizens to see if a united effort cannot be made to frown her down and stare her out of countenance.

We believe that a hundred determined men bent on moral reform and securing front seats, could bring such a paternity of high power opera-glasses to bear on her that she would get embarrassed and order the curtain rung down.

If the object was not accomplished the first night the crowd could press friends into the service and keep trying until the woman either left town or agreed to two extra nights.

If the woman dares to invade this city with her flimsy excuse of making sacrifices for art's sake, she will find a determined class of people here who will not tolerate anything of the sort unless her figure really comes up to Carson's classical Greek ideal of perfection in womanly outline.

Unless her figure is all she claims, any attempt to tack on half a dollar extra for reserved seats will be stubbornly resisted by our best citizens.

After a few nights her claims to perfect development can be critically disposed of.

We want the old Athenian outlines, whose glories were sung of in the dying twilight of Greek art by the silver-throated nightingale of Thrace, or we want the old rates of admission and ten dollars a night for advertising the show.

COAST NEWS.

Much difficulty is met at Fresno in securing a jury to try Stillman, who killed John D. Fisk.

Mrs. Rich, who was shot during the raid on a saloon in Lake County last week, died Tuesday.

Lee de Force, a rancher near Hollister, was held up and robbed of $25 by a man with a gun, Tuesday night.

A fourth flow of g's was struck at a depth of 1,400 feet at Stockton Wednesday. It turns to a height of three feet.

Forest fires in the lower range of mountains near Wallows Valley, Or., have ruined immense tract of valuable timber.

In sinking a well at Dry Creek, near Hilgard, Or., last week, the skeleton of an elk was found thirty feet below the surface.

George Pinon Sr. who was missing from Hollister, has been heard from at Los Angeles. His mind is in an unsettled condition.

The 2-year old son of J. C.
Luckey, United States Indian Agent at Warm Springs Reservation, was drowned in a mill race a few days ago.

The heirs of the estate of the late Dr. Glenn want $50,000 for permitting the Colusa Canal company to run their big ditch across their ranch.

The Pasadena Star says some rich specimens of platinum have been found in the mountains near Arroyo Seco. They have been sent to Los Angeles for assaying.

The Ontario Observer says: J.
W. McFarbridge has adopted a novel method of keeping his turkeys from preying upon the vineyard of his neighbor. Turkeys have an instinctive dread of the coyote, and taking advantage of this fear he keeps them out of the vineyard by chaining a coyote in it.

Two colored soldiers deserted from Fort Shaw, Mont., and stole horses belonging to Mr. Roach, the Government scout. Roach pursued and captured them, and while returning one of the men pulled a revolver and shot Roach who returned the fire, killing the man. The other deserter escaped to the woods wounded. Roach's wound is not dangerous.

E. B. Rail has just received a fine line of lamps, glassware and fancy wares, also a large lot of parlor stoves for wood and coal.
They are beauties. Don't forget the Medallion and Model ranges, Buck and other brands of cooking stoves.

THE IRISH LEADERS.

O'Brien Tell How He and Dillon Escaped.

DOUBLIN, October 16.—The United Ireland prints an account of the escape of Dillon and O'Brien written by O'Brien himself. He says, "we rowed from Dalke Wednesday at midnight to a yacht lying two miles off the shore.
Next morning found us ninety miles away towards the Welsh coast. Friday and Saturday we hid in a dead calm. On Sunday morning we landed at Land's End, when the wind again died away and we were forced to lie all day in the brilliant sunshine within two miles of shore. The Trinity House cutter passed quite close to us, and the crew of the Royal Albatross, off Falmouth, actually exchanged greetings with our sailors.

"A fog buried us from sight on Saturday night, and four steamers were blowing fog horns round us during the night. We cleared the Lizard in the morning and darted across for the French coast to outstrip the British shipping. We were becalmed again on Monday and obliged to beat up the channel. A brisk gale sprang up on Monday. While passing the Guernsey after midnight, we were apparently pursued by a revenue cutter, which, however was made to weather the gale, and abandoned the chase. In the morning we were running free before the wind for Cherbourg, where we landed at 11 o'clock.
We had reached our last day's supply of fresh water. All arrangements worked perfectly, thanks to a prominent Dublin citizen, who superintended them, and we had unparalleled good luck." —Bee.

Born.

BORN.—In this city, October 15 to the wife of P. J. Kilday, a daughter.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedie Druggist
